IndiKart Series Round 10, 21st October

The 10th round of the IndiKart Series took place at Hooton Park on the 21st October with a record entry of 110 drivers racing in the championship for non licence holders.

In the Bambino class Noah Chamberlain took the win in the modified class and in doing so secured the championship from Jacques Taylor who came home in 2nd place. In the standard class Reese Stott took his second win on the trot from Olivier Algieri who raced well all day to claim 2nd place with Max Barrow claiming the final podium place.

Next up was Class C Cadets with Scott Griffiths taking the win and in doing so edging ever closer to the championship win. Jay Shackleton consolidated his position in the championship by coming home a comfortable 2nd from Max Whitehead who finished in 3rd. In Class A2 for the Senior Rotax class, guest driver Michael Gollin took a closely fought win from David Buky who finished in 2nd but who scored maximum points. Sammie Jones finished in 3rd with Tony Davies coming home a close 4th and in doing so scoring the 18 points which kept this class championship the most closely fought of them all.

Class B was next up which includes all 4 stroke karts and Mike Kenworthy carried on his consistent form in taking the win and maximum points from Sean Evans who finished 2nd closely followed by Ian Kenworthy who completed the podium slots for the 390 class. In the GX200 class Neil Robinson took the win from Mark Brough who secured his first maximum points of the season in finishing 2nd 200. In the GX160 class Stuart Smith took the win meaning that the 2013 champion Dave Keech had to be happy with 2nd this time out.

In Class A1, which is for Junior 2 strokes, Brad Hutchison gained his first win of the season and the fastest lap beating Luke McCaffrey in to 2nd place with Lewis Currithers coming home 3rd.

In Class E for direct drive 100cc's, Russ Waller rolled back the years to claim the win with Adam Homer coming in 2nd and Ben Gardner taking the 3rd place on the podium.
